

COVID-19 PAYMENT & ATTENDANCE GUIDANCE

The latest government guidance is that employees who are able to work from home should do so.

For those who cannot work from home, the following applies - NOTE: the assumption throughout the following chart is that the "work from home" option has already been explored

This information was correct at 5pm on the 19 March.

With advice and guidance constantly changing, we will endeavour to keep this updated.

